

Cine este Igor Munteanu

Dr Igor Munteanu is acting as Chairman of the Administrative Board of IDIS. He is also teaching a Public Policy Course and Political-Administrative Institutions in Europe at ASEM. Previously, Dr Munteanu served as E.P. Ambassador of the Republic of Moldova to the United States of America (September 2010 – June 2015). Before 2010, Dr Munteanu led IDIS Viitorul, an influential think tank in Moldova. He served in the International Board of PASOS (Policy Association Network) between 2008-2010. He was also teaching Law and Public Policy at ASEM (2005 – 2010). Dr Munteanu served as Expert to the Institutional Committee of the Council of Europe (2001-2008), implementing various country-reporting assignments. He shared Membership to the BSTF (Black Sea Trust Fund) since 2007 and Member of the external evaluation board of the Balkan Trust for Democracy since 2007. Between 1996 and 1999, Dr Munteanu chaired the Arena Politicii Journal, as the single professional journal for political sciences and policy analysis. In 2002, he pursued his PhD at the Law Department of ULIM on regions and EU regionalism. He wrote and edited a number of studies and books on political transition after USSR, economic modernization and regional economies. Between 1997 and 2005, Dr Munteanu was involved as free lance political analyst with Radio Free Europe (RFERL). He also served as Political Advisor to the first President of Moldova (Mircea Snegur) during 1992-1994.